2025 Jubilee Year: Pilgrims of Hope

God is God, incredible, and a major mystery. We're nothing, so we think, "I've never heard God talk to me." "Wish God would send me a Burning Bush." Mary had a vision and saw an Angel." With us, it's a bit more subtle; more like when Isaiah heard God speaking – in a whisper. The Lord does talk to us, and if we believe that, and we're really quiet, we will hear Him.

A THANK YOU NOTE: ANNUAL PARISH RUMMAGE SALE – AN ACTION OF GENEROSITY AND COMMUNITY BUILDING

From Fr. William, Pastor

As a united active parish, once again we have just held a successful and interactive annual parish rummage sale. This yearly event has not only demonstrated and become a source of fundraising for parish sacramental and pastoral activities, but more importantly an opportunity to build and enhance a united parish as well as serve people in our community. Indeed, a rummage sale is one of the many parish outreach activities in which we welcome and involve all peoples as Christ would. It is a unique, lovely, and joyful experience to meet and greet each other as volunteers, item donors, buyers, and young ones as everyone mingles and encounters each other. The annual parish rummage sale is truly an action of generous hearts and hands.

With profound joy and gratitude of heart, I want to thank so many of you who prayerfully, materially, and financially participated directly or indirectly in the parish rummage sale 2025. A lot of gifts, talents, and time were invested in the whole process. In particular, I am thankful for the entire Parish Rummage Sale Committee for their effective and outstanding leadership, organization, communication, and coordination. We appreciate and applaud all volunteers, office staff, and the young and old. Our hearts go out to all who donated items of every kind, and those who delivered or picked them up. Thank you very much.

Finally, we appreciate and thank parishioners, friends, neighbors from far and near who came to shop and participate in this community building experience. You all made this event successful and an inspiring human relational experience.

May God bless and take care of your personal needs.
Amen.
