2025 Jubilee Year: Pilgrims of Hope

What exactly is it that I'm trusting and hoping that God will take care of? Am I really trusting that He is actually in control of this bad decision that my child appears to be making? Am I really trusting that the upside-down-ness about where my life is going is actually ok? Am I really trusting that God can make something good out of my huge mistake? One baby-step at a time: "I trust you, Jesus." Words are easy. Say it --- and mean it.

Gospel Reading

Luke 16:1-13 (shorter form, Luke 16:10-13)

Jesus tells a parable about a dishonest steward who is commended for his prudence; one cannot serve both God and money.

Family Connection

Talk with your children about some things that they have done to show that they can be trusted. Talk a bit about what it means to be responsible. Responsibility often means that we put aside something of passing value for something of greater value.

Read together the short form of today's Gospel, Luke 16:10-13. Talk about the importance of responsible use of money and our material possessions. As a family, commit to one action that you will take this week to show that your family serves God and not money.
